

October 2016

'EU law could be '50-year blip' on life of common law Neuberger' [October 2016] Counsel 7.

Mark Hatcher, 'Westminster Watch: Westminster village begins to recover its equilibrium after the EU vote, grappling with the machinery of change and arrangements to scrutinise Brexit policy' [October 2016] Counsel 10–11.

Evanna Fruithof, 'What now for the Bar? Evanna Fruithof outlines Brexit's implications for barristers across practice areas' [October 2016] Counsel 34–35.

Nicholas Querée, 'Rip it up and start again? Cartel regulation post-Brexit' (2016) 15 (3) Comp.L.J. 125–130.

Paul Johnson, 'Brexit: the implications for EU and UK merger control' (2016) 15 (3) Comp.L.J. 131–138.

Anneli Howard, 'Brexit: exit stage left for competition damages?' (2016) 15 (3) Comp.L.J. 139–144.

Denise Keating, 'Equality and inclusion, post-referendum. Denise Keating, chief executive of the employers network for equality and inclusion (enei), sets out enei's view of issues that currently concern employers in a post-referendum world, and argues that diversity and inclusion are key to future economic progress' [October 2016] EOR 4–5.

'News: Lords: Parliament should be consulted on Brexit' (October 2016) 1054 IDS Emp. L. Brief 19.

'Anti-Brexit disclosure victory' [3 October 2016] L.S.G. 6.

Marialuisa Taddia, 'Building work. Despite June's Brexit vote, real estate lawyers are confident foreign investment will continue to be a lucrative source of work' [10 October 2016] L.S.G. 14–16.

Jan Miller, 'The great EU repeal. Prime Minister unveils plans to set the Brexit ball in motion' (7 October 2016) 166 (7717) NLJ 5.

Trevor Tayleur, 'Brexit: A losing vote? Trevor Tayleur discusses Brexit & the loss of rights' (7 October 2016) 166 (7717) NLJ 11–12.

John van der Luit-Drummond, 'Government's 'secret' Brexit strategy revealed. Parliament surrendered its role by passing EU Referendum Act, court documents state' (4 October 2016) 160 (37) SJ 10–11.

John van der Luit-Drummond, 'JR Solicitor hits back at PM's 'inflammatory' Brexit remarks. Theresa May turns up the heat ahead of High Court hearing into article 50' (11 October 2016) 160 (38) SJ 8.

Middle Temple Library

Becket McGrath, 'Untangling the web: UK competition law after Brexit. With competition one of the areas where EU and domestic law are most closely intertwined Becket McGrath considers the legal disruption involved in separating the two regimes and forming a replacement trading model' (11 October 2016) 160 (38) SJ 22–25.

Nick Leech and Andrew Sands, 'A lack of security. Nick Leech and Andrew Sands consider 'the Brexit Effect' on compensation schemes' (October 2016) 149 P.I.L.J. 13–15.

Brian Hitchcock, 'Brexit ahead for supply chain. Brian Hitchcock looks at what the EU referendum result means for local government and its supply chain while the UK is putting in place its strategy' (September/October 2016) 32 POJ 8–9.

Jan Miller, 'Art 50: the battle begins. Can government trigger Brexit without Act of Parliament?' (14 October 2016) 166 (7718) NLJ 5.

Michael Zander QC, 'Brexit: Finger on the trigger. Does triggering Art 50 require a prior Act of Parliament' (14 October 2016) 166 (7718) NLJ 16–17.

Miles Gibson, 'The date is set but we remain in the dark' (15 October 2016) 1641 EG 61.

Deirdre Hipwell, 'Brexit means UK faces biggest economic threat since 2008 – and retail is exposed' (15 October 2016) 1641 EG 62.

Paul Clark, 'Risks ahead, but London still draws global capital' 1641 EG (15 October 2016) 63.

Joshua Rozenberg, 'Opinion: Brexit and the courts' [17 October 2016] L.S.G. 10.

Sean Jones QC, 'Practising in suspense. Brexit, the review of employment tribunal fees, and case law on reasonable adjustments are among the things keeping employment lawyers awake at night' (18 October 2016) 160 (39) SJ 27.

Elaine Knutt, 'Great Repeal Bill to transpose EU law ahead of future reform' [November 2016] H. & S.W 8.

Lottie Tyler, 'Shall I stay, or should I go? Lottie Tyler focuses on the potential impact of the Brexit vote on international child relocation' (November 2016) 161 Fam.L.J. 12–15.

Jan Miller, 'Brexit hits the High Court. High profile constitutional battle over triggering Art 50' (21 October 2016) 166 (7719) NLJ 5.

Middle Temple Library

Charles Brasted and Andrew Eaton, 'Making a success of Brexit. How can the "conscious uncoupling" of the EU & UK legal systems be achieved' (21 October 2016) 166 (7719) NLJ 16–17.

Toby Vanhegan and Riccardo Calzavara, 'Finger on the trigger. Toby Vanhegan and Riccardo Calzavara consider the arguments in Miller on whether article 50 notification can be made without a vote in parliament' (25 October 2016) 160 (40) SJ 19.

'100 days after the Brexit vote – what's the plan? Top in-house lawyers considered potential company moves and questions of talent retention at a recent Hot 100 Connect event' (17 October 2016) 30 (42) The Lawyer 12.

'UK Market Register: the Brexit files. Testing the mood of the legal market' (24 October 2016) 30 (43) The Lawyer 16.

Laurence Kaye, 'Brexit, Copyright and Liminality. Laurence Kaye considers the likely impact on the UK of the proposals from the EU Commission for a new Copyright Directive' [October/November 2016] Comp. & Law 3.

Michael Zander QC, 'Brexit: Brexit in court. Michael Zander QC considers the oral argument in the Art 50 court case' (28 October 2016) 166 (7720) NLJ 13–14.