- 5 minute panelist introductions (chair);
  - 30 minute Q&A (chair + panelists);
  - 10 minute closing views (all panelists);
  - 15 minute Q&A (audience).

BACKGROUND

In July, the Government launched an independent review into whether there is a need to reform the judicial review process. Chaired by Lord Edward Faulks QC, the review is part of the Government's plan to ensure the correct "balance" is struck between citizen's rights and effective governance. The panel is due to report before the end of the year.
