FORM FOR STUDENTS STUDYING THE BPTC OUTSIDE OF LONDON ONLY

ADVOCACY WEEKENDS 2013/14

Cumberland Lodge, Windsor Great Park York Royal Hotel, York

Middle Temple will be holding four advocacy weekends this academic year: three at Cumberland Lodge and one in York. These will be held on the weekends of:

- 29 November – 1 December 2013
- 7 – 9 February 2014 (York)
- 28 – 30 March 2014
- 16 – 18 May 2014

These residential programmes, accredited with 3 Qualifying Sessions each, provide an opportunity for current BPTC students not only to practise their advocacy, but also to get to know the Benchers and Barristers of the Inn who will be staying throughout the weekend. The atmosphere is informal and there is plenty of time for chats and recreation.

We are able to offer 54 places for each of the weekends in Cumberland Lodge and 36 in York. If they are oversubscribed, a ballot will be held; students may attend only one weekend. A balance will be struck between students from the BPTC institutions in London and those outside London. To accommodate as many students as possible on these weekends, all rooms are allocated on a share basis (2 students per room).

There will be a coach available for the journeys to and from Cumberland Lodge, leaving from Temple Place next to Temple Tube Station in the early afternoon on the Friday and returning on Sunday evening. This is included in the overall fee of £82.00.

Applications are now invited for the above weekends. Please submit the attached form no later than 4.00pm on Friday 1 November 2013. If there are spaces in either of the later weekends, late applications may be considered.

We will contact you after the 1 November to confirm whether you have been successfully allocated a place on one of the weekends and to arrange for payment to be made. The weekend is very heavily subsidised and £82 covers the cost of accommodation, transport from and to London (in the case of Cumberland Lodge), food, and drink with meals.
