

Brexit bibliography

Below is a bibliography of articles which have discussed the legal nature and implications of the UK's referendum on EU membership and Brexit. This bibliography has been compiled by Middle Temple Library staff and focuses on publications within the library's collection.

March 2016

Karen Harvie and Kenny Scott, 'EU referendum: Breaking up is hard to do. A recent Norwegian working time case shows how the UK could still be bound by employment directives even if it leaves the EU' (March 2016) 168 Emp.L.J. 5–7.

Matthew Rogers, 'EU referendum: Lawyers gear up for Brexit battle. The legal market is wise to the impact of a break with Europe, but can it influence the debate' (1 March 2016) 160 (8) SJ 10.

Adrian Mason, 'A referendum is not the panacea it might seem' (8 March 2016) 160 (9) SJ 12.

Thom Brooks, 'The legal war of words over the Calais jungle. The migrants' camp across the Channel is working to everyone's advantage in the Brexit debate, and both parties are right – and wrong – in their arguments' (29 March 2016) 160 (12) SJ 17.

Matthew Rogers, 'The Brexit lawyers: United in cause, divided in opinion. Matthew Rogers speaks to two lawyers with opposing views on the nation's best interests ahead of the EU referendum' (29 March 2016) 160 (12) SJ 20–22.

April 2016

Mark Hatcher, 'Westminster Watch: Whether the Inners or Outers win the day, the long-standing internecine fighting over Europe will not go away [April 2016] Counsel 9–10.

Jan Miller, 'EU leaflet "not unlawful"' (15 April 2016) 166 (7694) NLJ 5.

Frances Sieber, 'Brexit is not in the interest of the family lawyer' (5 April 2016) 160 (13) SJ 12.

Robin Tilbrook, 'In discussion: Brexit. Robin Tilbrook argues that lawyers should vote leave in the upcoming EU referendum' (19 April 2016) 160 (15) SJ 12.

Marina Wheeler QC, 'The case for Brexit' (26 April 2016) 160 (16) SJ 20.

May 2016

Rebecca Bailey-Harris and John Wilson QC, 'Brexit: To Hell in a handcart – Episode 1' (May 2016) 46 Fam Law 568–571.

David Hodson OBE, 'Brexit: England and Wales as a global family law leader or EU-emasculated?' (May 2016) 46 Fam Law 572–575.

Mark Hatcher, 'Westminster Watch: Is the business of government grinding to a halt as we face up to a spate of elections and the EU referendum and is legislation being pushed through without sufficient scrutiny?' [May 2016] Counsel 10–11.

Evanna Fruithof, 'EU referendum special: A relationship study. Evanna Fruithof sets the context to the referendum debate with a retrospective and prospective analysis of the UK-EU relationship' [May 2016] Counsel 18–20.

Professor Sir Alan Dashwood QC, 'EU referendum special: A substantial and binding reform. Professor Sir Alan Dashwood QC assesses the substance and legal character of the reform package negotiated for the UK with the EU' [May 2016] Counsel 22–23.

Martin Howe QC, 'EU referendum special: The EU debate: in or out?' [May 2016] Counsel 24–25.

Professor Michael Ford QC, 'Brexit and labour rights – a personal viewpoint' (May 2016) 1045 IDS Emp. L. Brief 16–18.

Tim Eicke and Kate Beaumont, 'Brexit brainstorming: immigration analysis. How will UK-based citizen fare in the event of a full Brexit?' (6 May 2016) 166 (7697) NLJ 15–16.

Jan Miller, 'Should all Brit ex-pats vote on Brexit? Call for all British citizens to have right to vote in the EU Referendum' (6 May 2016) 166 (7697) NLJ 4.

William Naunton and Bryan Pickup, 'Brexit: Perspectives for commercial real estate. William Naunton and Bryan Pickup review the potential implications of a possible exit from the EU' (May 2016) 341 P.L.J. 16–17.

Andrew Holroyd, 'In discussion: Brexit: Andrew Holroyd puts forward his reasons in favour of the UK remaining in the EU' (10 May 2016) 160 (18) SJ 12.

Jonathan Black, 'In discussion: Brexit. The electorate is being force-fed misinformation about Europe and the HRA' (24 May 2016) 160 (20) SJ 14.

Middle Temple Library

Hellen Kelly, 'Brexit: are you in or out? It is time for the UK maritime sector to pin its colours to the mast when it comes to membership of the European Union' [May 2016] The Intelligence 6.

June 2016

J. R. Spencer, 'What would Brexit mean for British criminal justice?' (22 June 2016) 5 Arch. Rev. 6–9.

Richard Kenyon and Olivia Baxendale, 'EU referendum: Should we stay or should we go? Richard Kenyon and Olivia Baxendale consider how domestic employment law might change if the UK votes to leave the EU' (June 2016) 171 Emp.L.J. 8–11.

Rebecca Bailey-Harris and John Wilson QC, 'Brexit: To Hell in a handcart – Episode 2' (June 2016) 46 Fam Law 692–695.

Gavin Smith, 'The Brexit debate: Project fear – no fear' (June 2016) 46 Fam Law 696–700.

Jonathon Manning, 'Brexit clauses hit the real estate market. Break clauses are likely to be enforced after the Leave vote, but most experts in the stalled market say it will thrive again in the longer run' (27 June 2016) 30 (26) The Lawyer 8–9.

Richard Machin, 'Social security in the aftermath of the EU referendum. Richard Machin gives an overview of what might happen to social security benefits whether UK citizens vote to leave or stay in the EU' [June 2016] Legal Action 10–11.

Jan Miller, 'Planning for Brexit' (10 June 2016) 166 (7702) NLJ 5.

Lauren Grest and Mark Surguy, 'Brexit brainstorming: data privacy' (10 June 2016) 166 (7702) NLJ 17–18.

Cathrine Grubb, 'Brexit brainstorming: implications for Wales' (17 June 2016) 166 (7703) NLJ 7.

Fionnuala Connolly, 'Should we stay or should we go?' (17 June 2016) 166 (7703) NLJ 8.

Jan Miller, 'EU referendum: the EU decides. Lawyers concerned over UK's future post-Brexit' (24 June 2016) 166 (7704) NLJ 4.

Graham Colley, 'In discussion: Brexit. The EU's legacy of peace and prosperity should be built upon, not forgotten' (7 June 2016) 22 SJ 12.

Thom Brooks, 'Where have Cameron's promised reforms to EU membership gone? The foundations were non-existent for the prime minister's red card and emergency brake on benefits policies' (7 June 2016) 22 SJ 15.

Middle Temple Library

Matthew Rogers, 'Immigration lawyers see rise in UK citizenship requests. Amid uncertainty over Britain's future, European expats fear for their residency status ahead of Brexit vote' (14 June 2016) 160 (23) SJ 10–11.

Giovanni Guglielmetti and Marco Blei, 'IP litigation and Brexit. Giovanni Guglielmetti and Marco Blei discuss how the outcome of the referendum could affect the new EU-wide patent system' (14 June 2016) 160 (23) SJ 12.

Snigdha Nag, 'Employment rights: An unseen iceberg in the Brexit debate. Snigdha Nag considers the employment law rights of millions of UK workers to be the number one hidden issue ahead of the EU Referendum' (14 June 2016) 160 (23) SJ 15.

Andrew Kidd, 'In discussion: Brexit. The EU is not the panacea that Remain would have us believe' (21 June 2016) 160 (24) SJ 12.

Thom Brooks, 'Telling the real story behind immigration figures. If we're to solely listen to a misinformed media, then it's easy to think Brexit is all about jobs or benefits' (21 June 2016) 160 (24) SJ 17.

Matthew Rogers, 'Lawyers gear up for busy period as UK votes to leave EU. New Conservative government will dictate nature of any reformed relationship with the EU' (28 June 2016) 160 (25) SJ 10–11.

July 2016

Valsamis Mitsilegas, 'The Uneasy Relationship between the UK and European Criminal Law. From Opt-Outs to Brexit' (2016) 8 Crim.L.R. 519–538.

William Long, 'Digital departure. William Long assesses the impact of Brexit on data protection legislation in the UK' (July/August 2016) 68 Co. L.J. 22–24.

'Focus on Brexit: Brexit – the UK's future relationship with the EU' (July 2016) 1049, IDS Emp. L. Brief 13–18.

Dave Osler, 'Brexit Blues. What next for shipping, after Britain's vote to leave the EU?' [July/August 2016] The Intelligence 12–15.

Catrin Griffiths, 'What's next? Planning for the legal world after Brexit. The only certainty in the post-Referendum uncertainty is that firms need to be ready and flexible for the changes and challenges ahead' (25 July 2016) 30 (30) The Lawyer (Brexit Briefings) 3.

Lucinda Case, 'Shaping the post-Brexit world. The UK's final farewell to the EU may be years away but lawyers in city firms and global businesses must plan for changes now to play a vital role in the post-Brexit world' (25 July 2016) 30 (30) The Lawyer (Brexit Briefings) 4.

Middle Temple Library

Daniel Greenberg, 'Short-term legislative implications of Brexit. The UK's statute book is about to get a lot more complicated' (25 July 2016) 30 (30) The Lawyer (Brexit Briefings) 5.

Gregg Beechey and Zac Mellor-Clark, 'Brexit: what now for alternative fund managers? The UK's vote to leave the EU raises the question of whether its alternative funds can retain passport rights giving them access to continental markets' (25 July 2016) 30 (30) The Lawyer (Brexit Briefings) 6.

Robert Purves and David Simpson, 'UK firms face challenge of accessing EU after Brexit. UK financial services firms risk losing their passport to trade freely in Europe following Brexit, but UK regulation is likely to evolve in tandem with EU law' (25 July 2016) 30 (30) The Lawyer (Brexit Briefings) 7.

Tom Bridgford and Peter McCormack, 'The impact of Brexit on contracts. In the wake of the referendum, firms need to plan for uncertainty. What first steps should you take now?' (25 July 2016) 30(30) The Lawyer (Brexit Briefings) 8.

Colin Leckey, 'Employment law expected to stay largely unchanged. Any changes to UK employment law are likely to be at the margins, with the most immediate challenge for employers being the status of EU migrants' (25 July 2016) 30 (30) The Lawyer (Brexit Briefings) 9.

Rachel Fetches, 'UK will remain big feature of Europe's IP landscape. The UK has played a major role in shaping EU intellectual property law and this close relationship looks likely to continue even following Brexit' (25 July 2016) 30 (30) The Lawyer (Brexit Briefings) 10.

Emilio Cividanes and Stuart Ingis and Kelly DeMarchis, 'Keep calm and carry on: data protection after Brexit. Brexit will have little immediate impact on UK data protection law, but the key question is to what extent the UK will adhere to new EU regulation due in 2018' (25 July 2016) 30 (30) The Lawyer (Brexit Briefings) 11.

Nikolay Mizulin and Edouard Gergondet, 'Five possible outcomes for EU-UK trade relations. The alternatives to EU membership and their implications for the trading relationship between the country and the remaining member states' (25 July 2016) 30 (30) The Lawyer (Brexit Briefings) 12.

Peter Scherer, 'Post-referendum realities and opportunities ahead. Business connections between UK and Germany are now in limbo but there are specific areas that companies can immediately review and plan ahead' (25 July 2016) 30 (30) The Lawyer (Brexit Briefings) 13.

Middle Temple Library

Rafael González-Gallarza, 'A tale of two cities: Madrid is ready to replace London. Madrid's bid to lure financial big-hitters if the City finds itself on death row after negotiations with Europe are concluded could sow discord on the Continent' (25 July 2016) 30 (30) The Lawyer (Brexit Briefings) 14.

Shane Kelleher and John Larkin and Tara O'Reilly, 'UK firms look to Ireland as uncertainty takes hold. Irish corporate law firm William Fry has seen a rush of inquiries from UK law firms and regulated financial service providers since the Brexit vote happened' (25 July 2016) 30 (30) The Lawyer (Brexit Briefings) 15.

Stefania Bariatti, 'Cross-border litigation in contractual matters. Several EU regulations presently govern cross-border litigation and the consequences of Brexit could be particularly complex in this field' (25 July 2016) 30 (30) The Lawyer (Brexit Briefings) 16.

Keith O'Donnell, 'Luxembourg stands ready to welcome PE with the RAIF. An enhanced alternative to the Anglo-Saxon limited partnership for funds could make Luxembourg a big part of the private equity solution after Brexit' (25 July 2016) 30 (30) The Lawyer (Brexit Briefings) 17.

Daniel Hayek and Mark Meili, 'Why the UK may consider taking the Swiss approach. With questions marks over the UK as a place of jurisdiction, one option would be replace the present arrangements with the Lugano Convention' (25 July 2016) 30 (30) The Lawyer (Brexit Briefings) 18.

Guy Wilkes, 'Time waits for no financial services institution. Financial service firms cannot wait for the outcome of the leave negotiations before putting their restructuring plans into effect' (25 July 2016) 30 (30) The Lawyer (Brexit Briefings) 19.

Frances McLeod, 'What next for cross-border e-discovery and data issues? Corporates should identify consultants with capabilities or infrastructure within the EU, or consider deploying a mobile e-discovery solution in-country' (25 July 2016) 30 (30) The Lawyer (Brexit Briefings) 19.

Michael Cross, 'News: EU vote casts doubt on Unified Patent Court' [4 July 2016] L.S.G. 1.

'News Brexit briefing' [4 July 2016] L.S.G. 6.

Joshua Rozenberg, 'Making the big call. Gloom is the prevailing emotion among legal practitioners after the referendum. But we must all adapt' [4 July 2016] L.S.G. 8.

'Voices: EU referendum. Brexit and legal business. Solicitors have their say' [11 July 2016] L.S.G. 8–10.

Middle Temple Library

Steve Hynes, 'Post-Brexit vote, the government must guarantee rights of residence to EU citizens already living in the UK' [July/August 2016] Legal Action 3.

Jan Miller, 'Brexit fallout for legal profession' (1 July 2016) 166 (7705) NLJ 6.

Jon Robins, 'What rights do we have? What now for human rights in the UK post-Brexit' (1 July 2016) 166 (7705) NLJ 8.

Sir Geoffrey Bindman QC, 'Do we have to leave the EU?' (8 July 2016) 166 (7706) NLJ 6.

Charles Pigott, 'Employment matters: the same but different? It's au revoir but not adieu to EU employment law' (8 July 2016) 166 (7706) NLJ 8.

Michael Zander QC, 'Act in haste ...' (15 July 2016) 166 (7707) NLJ 6.

Roger Smith, 'Brexit: Grey days. Is our Constitution fit for purpose following Brexit?' (22 July 2016) 166 (7708) NLJ 8.

Jan Miller, 'London litigation post-Brexit. LSLA president: lawyers must act to avoid potential damage' (29 July 2016) 166 (7709) NLJ 5.

Ed Crosse, 'Brexit: What now for London? What is London litigation's place in the post-Brexit world' (29 July 2016) 166 (7709) NLJ 6.

Andrew Young and Katherine, 'Deal Brexit: New Territory (pt. 1). The implications of Brexit for international travel claims are considered by Andrew Young & Katherine Deal' (29 July 2016) 166 (7709) NLJ 14–15.

'Brexit provides opportunity for UK family law to improve, say lawyers. Jurisdiction of family disputes in spotlight as 'long and complex' process awaits' (5 July 2016) 160 (26) SJ 9.

Matthew Rogers, 'UK decides when to trigger article 50, not the EU. New Conservative government must act quickly to clarify UK-EU position' (5 July 2016) 160 (26) SJ 10–11.

James Merritt, 'GDPR and edisclosure after Brexit' (12 July 2016) 160 (27) SJ 12.

Chris Pawlowska, 'Political rhetoric v Legal fallout. Those who thought a 'leave' vote would secure immediate departure from the EU have been sorely misled' (19 July 2016) 160 (28) SJ 17.

Middle Temple Library

Paul Stanley QC, 'The 'conscious uncoupling' of EU law. Constructing a scheme to amend, replace, or eliminate existing European law is likely to require years of demanding effort' (19 July 2016) 160 (28) SJ 25.

Julian Boswall and Alex Minhinick, 'Planning post Brexit. Julian Boswall and Alex Minhinick consider how the UK's withdrawal from the EU may affect planning policy, as well as two significant domestic judgments' (19 July 2016) 160 (28) SJ 32–33.

Saara Idelbi, 'Challenging the EU Referendum Act. Saara Idelbi reflects on the judicial review brought by Britons abroad over their right to vote in the EU referendum' (19 July 2016) 160 (28) SJ 34–35.

Kate Johnson, 'Express elections on succession. In the aftermath of the Brexit vote, clarity is needed on the EU Succession Regulation' (19 July 2016) 160 (28) SJ 38.

Miranda Butler, 'The implications of Brexit: Who is sovereign now? The real-world power of the executive and legislature has been substantially diminished by withdrawal from the EU' (26 July 2016) 160 (29) SJ 30.

John Hodgson, 'What Brexit could mean for individual rights. John Hodgson considers how the rights of citizenship, free movement, and entitlement to social security benefits might be affected for the UK citizens in the EU, and vice versa' (26 July 2016) 160 (29) SJ 32–33.

Dr Julian Morris, 'Where to now for EU travel law? From air fares to data roaming charges. Dr Julian Morris discusses the potential effects of Brexit for UK tour operators and travellers' (26 July 2016) 160 (29) SJ 34–35.

August 2016

Jodie Blackstock and Alex Tinsley, 'The "Roadmap Directives" in UK criminal procedure: now and post-Brexit' (23 August 2016) 7 Arch. Rev. 6–9.

Chantal-Aimée Doerries QC, 'New beginnings. The Bar Council is preparing for what the future might look like outside the European Union, under a new Prime Minister and a new Lord Chancellor [August 2016] Counsel 5.

Evanna Fruithof, 'A view from Brussels. No single market 'a la carte' – Evanna Fruithof reports the mood in Brussels in the aftermath of the Brexit vote' [August 2016] Counsel 10–11.

Nick Barber and Tom Hickman and Jeff King, 'The Article 50 'trigger'. Nick Barber, Tom Hickman and Jeff King argue that Parliament has an indispensable role in triggering withdrawal from the European Union' [August 2016] Counsel 18.

Middle Temple Library

Evanna Fruithof and Alexandria Carr and Gordon Nardell QC, 'A new relationship. Evanna Fruithof, Alexandria Carr and Gordon Nardell QC set out possible models for the UK's relationship with the EU post-Brexit' [August 2016] Counsel 20–21.

Michael Rubenstein, 'Diary: Brexit' (August/September 2016) 270 EOR 2.

William Longrigg, 'Brexit and the IAFL' (August 2016) 46 Fam Law 933.

Elizabeth Walsh, 'After Brexit: enforcing European custody orders: Re D' (August 2016) 46 Fam Law 934.

Elaine Knutt, 'The Brexit effect. The referendum triggered an economic and political shockwave, and health and safety will feel the impact too. Elaine Knutt looks at what could happen, while experts across the sector share their predictions' [August 2016] H. & S.W. 14–18.

Clifford Sosnow, 'Brexit: Is the UK set to miss out on EU-Canada trade deal gains? Lawyers should advise their clients of the provisional application of the CETA trade deal to the UK, although it is not yet known which elements might apply' (1 August 2016) 30 (31) The Lawyer 19.

Peter Thomson QC, 'Roll up that map! Peter Thomson QC shares his reflections on Brexit & some lessons from history' (5 August 2016) 166 (7710) NLJ 8.

Katie Newbury, 'A hostile takeover? Katie Newbury reflects on the impact of the UK's recent & future migration environment' (5 August 2016) 166 (7710) NLJ 9.

Alyson Coulson, 'Brexit: Taxing times. Alyson Coulson looks at the current IHT & probate situation & whether Brexit will have any effect' (5 August 2016) 166 (7710) NLJ 9.

Richard Lang, 'Brexit: Trigger happy? The need for Parliament's consent to trigger Art 50 is a matter of EU law' (12 August 2016) 166 (7711) NLJ 8.

Michael Zander QC, 'Peer reviewing Brexit pt. 2. What did the pro-Brexit peers suggest? Michael Zander QC looks back at the House of Lords' post-referendum debate' (12 August 2016) 166 (7711) NLJ 11.

Iain Miller, 'Comment Brexit: How UK law firm could lead in Europe. Iain Miller considers the restrictive regulatory environments of EU member states' (2 August 2016) 160 (30) SJ 12.

Middle Temple Library

Andy McGregor and Sarah Shaul, 'The implications of Brexit for UK commercial disputes. Andy McGregor and Sarah Shaul consider the possible effects of withdrawal from the EU on the use of English governing law and jurisdiction clauses in commercial contracts' (2 August 2016) 160 (30) SJ 29.

Chris Pawlowska, 'EU negotiations from the outside. Whichever path the UK takes to a new trade agreement with the EU, it is likely to require free movement of persons as a trade-off for access to the single market (2 August 2016) 160 (30) SJ 32–33.

John van der Luit-Drummond, 'Research: Banking litigators and regulators the big winners post Brexit. LIBOR investigations continue as an expected FCA expansion creates more opportunities for lawyers' (9 August 2016) 160 (31) SJ 9.

'EU law requests from barristers among highest ranked. Direct Access Portal search results highlight uncertainty over Brexit among consumers and businesses' (9 August 2016) 160 (31) SJ 10–11.

Jennifer Martin, 'Brexit and the conveyancer. Jennifer Martin considers the latest risk and outlook for the UK property market' (9 August 2016) 160 (31) SJ 12.

Tessa Shepperson, 'The private rented sector post-Brexit: Carrying on as usual. Tessa Shepperson discusses how the referendum result will affect landlords and tenants, particularly in terms of changes or delays to new legislation' (9 August 2016) 160 (31) SJ 39–40.

Kirsty Finlayson, 'The Brexit effect for young lawyers. Kirsty Finlayson discusses how younger members of the profession can benefit from the likely increase in business for firms following the EU referendum' (16 August 2016) 160 (32) SJ 13.

Dyann Heward-Mills and Joanna De Fonseca, 'Brexit: What does it mean for Data Protection?' [August/September 2016] Comp. & L 3–4.

September 2016

Rosemary Davidson and Ben Lloyd and Adam Payter, 'Extradition Law – Recent Developments and the Potential Impact of Brexit' (2016) 10 Crim.L.R. 743–764.

Sophie Nappert, 'Brexit: Business as usual? Sophie Nappert analyses how international arbitration in London will fare post-Brexit' [September 2016] Counsel 17–18.

David Thame, 'What comes next? How will the countdown to triggering Article 50 play out in the UK's regional property markets' [10 September 2016] EG 92–95.

Euan Smith and Susan Hay, 'Brexit: The immigration impact for employers. Euan Smith and Susan Hay discuss the challenges that employers could face if the UK's exit from the EU leads to restrictions on the free movement of workers' (September 2016) 173 Emp.L.J. 8–11.

'Sector gears up to lobby on Brexit' [September 2016] H. & S.W. 4.

Dr Holger Hestermeyer, 'How Brexit Will Happen: A Brief Primer on European Union Law and Constitutional Law Questions Raised by Brexit' (September 2016) 33 J.Int'l Arb. 429–450.

Michael McIlwrath, 'An Unamicable Separation: Brexit Consequences for London as a Premier Seat of International Dispute Resolution in Europe' (September 2016) 33 J.Int'l Arb. 451–462.

Prof. Dr Mohamed S. Abdel Wahab, 'Brexit's Chilling Effect on Choice of Law and Arbitration in the United Kingdom: Practical Reflections between Aggravation and Alleviation' (September 2016) 33 J.Int'l Arb. 463–482.

Sara Masters QC and Belinda McRae, 'What Does Brexit Mean for the Brussels Regime?' (September 2016) 33 J.Int'l Arb. 483–500.

Kate Davies and Valeriya Kirsey, 'Anti-Suit Injunctions in Support of London Seated Arbitrations Post-Brexit: Are All Things New Just Well-Forgotten Past?' (September 2016) 33 J.Int'l Arb. 501–520.

Prof. Dr Richard Kreindler and Paul Gilbert and Ricardo Zimbron, 'Impact of Brexit on UK Competition Litigation and Arbitration' (September 2016) 33 J.Int'l Arb. 521–540.

Annet van Hooft, 'Brexit and the Future of Intellectual Property Litigation and Arbitration' (September 2016) 33 J.Int'l Arb. 541–564.

Markus Burgstaller and Agnieszka Zarowna, 'Possible Ramifications of the UK's EU Referendum on Intra- and Extra-EU BITs' (September 2016) 33 J.Int'l Arb. 565–575.

Natasha Bernal, 'Brexit boost. Will Ireland become the new gateway to Europe following the UK's decision to leave the EU?' (12 September 2016) 30 (37) The Lawyer 18–26.

Middle Temple Library

Ibrahim Hasan, 'Data Protection and Brexit' [5 September 2016] L.S.G. 24.

John Halford, 'Brexit and legal certainty. Attempts to trivialise the Article 50 litigation are unworthy' [19 September 2016] L.S.G. 12.

Michael Cross, 'English law will flourish after Brexit – Bourns' [26 September 2016] L.S.G. 8.

Michael Cross, 'Straw: 'EU the sick man of Europe'' [26 September 2016] L.S.G. 10.

Jan Miller, 'Employment law post-Brexit' (2 September 2016) 166 (7712) NLJ 4.

Frank Maher, 'Brexit: a risky business? What does Brexit mean for law firm risk' (9 September 2016) 166 (7713) NLJ 8.

Dr John McMullen, 'Brexit: The referendum effect. John McMullen shares his thoughts on TUPE & Brexit' (9 September 2016) 166 (7713) NLJ 11–12.

Mark Solon, 'The same but different. What should expert witnesses expect post Brexit & Briggs?' (16 September 2016) 166 (7714) NLJ 17.

Elizabeth Slattery and Jo Broadbent, 'Brexit: A long & winding road? Elizabeth Slattery & Jo Broadbent discuss potential models for UK employment law post-Brexit' (23 September 2016) 166 (7715) NLJ 8–9.

Dominik Opalinski, 'The impact of Brexit on the charity sector. Charities need to be aware of the changes that might be ahead, such as loss of funding streams and reductions in rate relief, and plan accordingly' (13 September 2016) 160 (34) SJ 15.

'UK workers must not be left worse off post-Brexit. Government must guarantee rights will not be diluted as lawyers expect changes to legal system' (20 September 2016) 160 (35) SJ 9.

'Brexit: 300 solicitors qualify in Ireland' (20 September 2016) 160 (35) SJ 10.

Matthew Allan, 'EU law: Irrelevant or a commercial advantage? Should EU law remain compulsory for aspiring solicitors' (20 September 2016) 160 (35) SJ 13.

Dr Damian Mather, 'Reports of the death of EU law have been greatly exaggerated. Given its inherent academic value and its continued direct or indirect influence on UK law, Dr Damian Mather advises students to hang on to their EU textbooks' (27 September 2016) 160 (36) SJ 15.

Middle Temple Library

Louisa Nye and Duncan McCombe, 'Looking outward, not inward. Regardless of what Brexit means, barristers must continue to affirm the importance of English and Welsh law and forge relationships with lawyers in other jurisdictions' [Autumn 2016] SJ Bar Focus, 11–13.