

Career Clinic for Students with disabilities

Tuesday 10 November 2015

18:00-19:45

The Bar Council will run its first Career Clinic for students with disabilities. The clinic will take place at Bar Council's offices in London.

What we will cover:

- An introduction to the Bar including qualifications, scholarships and the pros and cons of different practice areas for those with disabilities
- Disabled student/barristers' rights and responsibilities
- Ethical dilemmas over disclosure
- Life at the Bar as a practitioner with a disability

Who should attend:

- Final Year undergraduate law or GDL disabled students
- BPTC disabled students

Members of the Bar Council's Disability Panel and chambers' representatives will be on hand to provide bespoke advice and encouragement.
