

TEMPLE CHILDREN'S MUSIC CONCERTS

Sunday 24 November 2013

Middle Temple Hall

The morning sessions will last for approximately 45 minutes each and are aimed at 0-3 year old children and given by "Pitter Patter" who give regular music concerts for tiny tots in St Albans. The afternoon sessions will last for approximately an hour and are aimed at 4-7 year old children and are given by Members of the City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra.

Participation is the order of the day, including an opportunity to try some of the instruments. Children's tea is available after each afternoon concert. If you have children in both age groups, you may attend both concerts on one ticket.

The Parliament Chamber will be available as a picnic space in the lunch break. This promises to be a fun packed day for all and we look forward to seeing you there!

Children are free and adult tickets cost £15 each. To book please contact the Treasury on 020 7427 4800 or e-mail members@middletemple.org.uk

Members of Middle and Inner Temple and their children are warmly invited to the Temple Children's Music Concerts.
