

Middle Temple

CPD Training Day at Middle Temple Saturday 23 November 2013

6 CPD points available

Open to members of all Inns of Court

“Advocacy and Ethics: Practical Problems in a Changing World”

Speakers include a number of members of the High Court bench at both first instance and Court of Appeal level, Circuit Court Judges, practitioners with experience of ethical problems and a representative of the Bar Standards Board

Topics covered to include:

- The problems arising from “Nicked Documents” in civil and criminal cases.
- The effect of the New Code of Conduct to be in effect from January 2014.
- The Practical Implications of the Jackson Reforms for advocates.
- Dealing with Litigants in Person in civil cases.
 - Mediation advocacy.
 - Dealing with vulnerable witnesses in criminal cases.
 - Disclosure in serious and complex criminal cases.

Tickets: Full day including lunch and delegate pack:

*Pupils £50
Up to 5 years' Call £105
Over 5 years' Call £150
QC £210*

Dress: Casual

Contact: Stacey Brown or Sally Yorke
Tel: 020 7427 4800

E-mail: members@middletemple.org.uk
The Treasury Office, Ashley Building,
Middle Temple Lane, London EC4Y 9BT

There will also be panel discussions of the ethical problems that arise in civil and criminal cases.